For over 25 years, individual and group clients from around the world, as well as their advisors, have relied on our expertise to protect their health and well-being. Because it is important to us that you feel well taken care of at all times, we accompany and support our clients in all matters related to their health insurance throughout their lives.

Our additional services at no extra cost

We will take care of you not only until you have found the right insurance solution - but for a lifetime. You can always contact us when you find yourself unable to deal with the insurance company directly. This may be when you feel that a claim was unrightfully rejected, when you face difficulties to obtain a pre-authorization for a planned surgery or hospitalization. Further to that, at each annual renewal, we will review the renewal terms offered by the insurance company to ensure you are being treated fairly and there are no avoidable premium increases.

Our satisfaction: finding the best solution for your situation

Important Information and Disclaimer

The provided quotes are indicative and valid for a maximum of 30 days. Final premiums may vary due to a change in rates from insurance companies, change in age of a quoted person, premium loading due to pre-existing medical conditions or change in the selected payment frequency.

The illustrated benefit comparison is a high-level representation of the benefits and subject to the detailed table of benefits of the insurance company. Please read it carefully. The final insurance contract is subject to your application and medical declaration.

Failing to disclose relevant medical information (including ongoing treatments, diagnosis and/or symptoms) when applying can put you at risk of denied claims or even policy cancellation, highlighting the importance of full medical disclosure during the application process.

Please note that the premium for your health insurance policy is subject to change every year. This is because premiums are based on a variety of factors, including age, medical inflation, and other risk factors. We will always provide you with advance notice of any premium changes, so that you can make an informed decision about your coverage every year.
